DIVIDED IRISHMEN.

Parnell's Opponents Burned in Effigy-Mc-Carthy's Party Backed by the Clergy. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

London, Dec. 7.-Ireland was abiaze with excitement to-day, many public meetings being held and the split in the party being the universal topic of conversation and discussion everywhere. The massmeeting in Phœnix Park, Dublin, was not so large as had been anticipated-in fact, was not a formidable gathering in point of size, though it was quite turbulent. It was distinctly a Parnell meeting, and Healy and other opponents of that leader were burned in effigy. Judging from the bitterness of the denunciations against them, they would have been burned in person had they been present. So far as returns have been received to-night, most of the impromptu meetings hastily convened to-day were in Parnell's favor, and in more places than Dublin the chief enemies of Parnell were figuratively destroyed by fire. The Lord Mayor presided at the Dublin meeting, and moved a resolution that Mr. Parnell alone was fitted to lead the nation. He condemned the Healyites, whose independence and integrity, he said, had been sapped by English wire-pullers. He called on Mr. Parnell under no circumstances to abandon his potition. Mr. Gladstone, he said, was still humbugging Ireland. When Sexton, Dillon, Healy and O'Brien [groans] were dining with Gladstone they were, perhaps, settling the Irish cause. The sweet breads and nice dishes had overcome them. He challenged Mr. Parneil's opponents, whom he characterized as political legers, to come to Ireland and see how they would be received. The resolution was carried unanimously: also a vote of thanks to those who supported Mr. Parnell. When the crowd burned the effigy of Healy they finished by kicking the remains about the park amid shouts of derision. Otherwise the meeting was orderly.

The bishops' manifesto condemning Parnell was read in all the churches at mass, and the priests added exhortations to the people to obey the spirit of that document in their political action. The people did not seem to take kindly to this clerical interference in some cases, and at Mitchelstown and Kilkenny the Nationalists met after service and adopted resolutions supporting Parnell. In Armagh the priests intend to stump the country against Parnell. It is believed, however, that the church will confine itself to moral sussion. At St. Colman's Cathedral, Queenstown, after the letter had been read, Rev. Father Fisk addressed the congregation. He declared that it was no longer possible for Parnell to remain at the head of the Irish party. He had disgraced and degraded himself by bis own acts, and could not lead the smallest section of the Irish people. In refusing to recognize the authority of the bishops, Parnell was doing incalculable mischief to the Irish cause, was performing the work of the enemy and was rendering the peo-ple disunited and distracted.

The excitement in London political cir-cles is intense, and to-morrow's action of the Irish factions in Parliament is awaited with the greatest interest, particularly as there are rumors of startling developments in the way of a Tory-Irish alliance. The Parnellites and their opponents rested on their arms to-day, after the exciting events of yesterday. Nearly all the members at-tended church in the morning, and Mr. Par-nell secluded himself from all but intimate friends. The Parnellites, it is understood, are anxious to force an appeal to the country as soon as possible, and claim that their antagonists are afraid to submit the issue of their conduct to the people. It is stated, on the alleged authority of Timothy Healy, that the party headed by Justin McCarthy will continue to keep their seats without any resignations, upholding the cause of home rule, and waiting for time to bring about a sober and deliberate feeling in the now excited Irish constituencies. Mr. Barry said to-day that Mr. Parnad's cause would said to-day that Mr. Parneil's cause would lose, instead of gain, with the progress of time, and that the next general elec-tions would see him deader than Isaac Butt. Parnell, on the other hand, is said to feel entirely confident and to be already selecting suc-cessors for those who have deserted him. He is in ample funds, as since the division in the party several American organizations have forwarded money directly to him instead of to the treasurers formerly appointed. A large portion of the Irish members have been in receipt of stipends for their services in Parliament, and it is difficult to see how those disconnected from Parnell are to receive their salaries here-after, as the common fund is locked up by the imbroglio. One of the first tasks of the McCarthys must necessarily be to devise some scheme of raising a fund independent of that heretofore relied upon for parlia-mentary expenses, and it is not likely that either faction will obtain much money from the Irish people until the question of su-premacy is settled.

DID NOT JUMP ON THE TABLES. Mesers. Sexton, John Redmond, Crilly and others who were present at the closing scene, when the majority seceded from the parliamentary caucus, request that a denial be made of the sensational statements printed in certain English papers, and probably in some American journals, to the effect that some members stood upon the tables and threatened to fight; and that it was necessary to call in the police to quell the disturbance. On the contrary, it is stated, the members who second left the room without any disorder, and almost in silence, no offensive epithets being exchanged. As they quietly filed out those who remained kept their seats without remark until all had left.

The conference of the McCarthy party was prolonged until after midnight last night. Mr. McCarthy presided through the session. A committee consisting of Messrs. Murphy, Barry, Morrough, Healy, Sexton and Power was appointed to draft a prospectus for a limited company to establish a daily newspaper in Ireland to be devoted to the interests of the Nationalist party. Harry Webb, the treasurer of the new company, opened a list and the members present subscribed £1,020. It is probable that United Ireland will become a daily puplication. The capital of the proposed company is £100,000, of which £30,000 will be paid up. The McCarthy party are keenly alive to the disadvantage of the leading Nationalist papers siding with Parleading Nationalist papers siding with Par-nell and the whole machinery of the Na-tional League being under his control They are hopeful, however, that the influence of the bishops and priests will assist them to obtain a popular verdict. Both sides are prepared for an immediate campaign in Ireland.

The Mayor of Cork, after hearing of the action of the McCarthy party, last evening sent the following dispatch to John O'Connor: "Ireland will not allow England to select her leader. This right belongs to Ireland. The Irish will not stand Gladstone's dictation."

for early to-morrow. The first business to come before the committee will be election by ballot of a consultation committee of its members. Many of the majority party are in a dilemma, their quarterly checks for £50 each for parliamentary services just becoming due. It is probable that the money with which to pay them will be advanced from the funds subscribed at last night's meeting for the establishment of a new paper. The party is discussing of a new paper. The party is discussing the advisability of Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien returning by way of France, where a convention could be held, at which the advice of the envoys could be obtained before their arrest. Messrs. Gilhooly, P. O'Brien, Carew and Mahon are still classed with the doubtfuls. The strength, therefore, of the McCarthyites is fifty, and that of the Parnellites thirty-one. of the Parnellites thirty-one.

Irish Envoys at New York. NEW YORK, Dec. 7 .- Mesers. O'Brien, Sullivan, Dillon, O'Connor and Gill, the Irish envoys to America, have arrived it this city from Chicago. Mr. Harrington, the sixth member of the party, who has decided to cast his lot with Mr. Parnell, did not accompany them. Mr. T. P. O'Connor went to the Bartholdi Hotel, where he has friends, while the other four put up at the Hoffman House. They took the finest suite of rooms in the house on the first floor. They refused to be interviewed, but all signed the following statement to the press:
"We regret to be obliged to continue and maintain absolute silence for the present. We have cabled our approval of the choice of Mr. Justin McCarthy as chairman of the Irish National party, and our earnest hope is that our colleagues and our people may see the way to acquiesce in that choice, and thus restore the priceless blessing of unity in our party. Whatever additional communication we may find ourselves at liberty to make to the public will be made collectively, and will not be made long as we can see any possibility of saving our country from a ruinous conflict. We would prefer that our views should suffer by our holding our tongues rather than that the possibility of unity should be prejudiced by a single injudicious word at this painful mo-

To a friend Mr. O'Brien expressed him-self as being sorry for the break that had occurred in the party of six that arrived so united here such a short time ago. Asked how long he and his friends would remain, he replied: "Really we cannot say. Our action must be governed by circumstances. We have absolutely no plans perfected for our future movements here." There were a number of their friends at the hotel to greet them on their arrival.

Support Piedged to Parnell. ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 7 .- The Irish societies of this city met to-day, and had a rousing meeting, the outcome of which was a resolution to send the following cablegram to Mr. Parnell: "The united Irish societies of the capital city of the Empire State of New York repudiate secessionists, and unqualifiedly pledge support to Charles Stewart Parnell." The secretary was also instructed to write a letter to Wm. O'Brien, M. P., telling him that as he had seceded from Parnell his services as lecturer for the cause were not required in this city.

THE LYMPH STOLEN. Servants Make Money at Berlin-A Shepherd's

Diphtheria Cure. BERLIN, Dec. 7.-Every day furnishes new proof that Professor Koch's wonderful invention is being utilized by those not professionally associated with the Professor in his work, to benefit themselves. Another instance of this kind occurred today. A janitor by the name of Meyer, employed in the Central Hotel, was accused of selling to some foreign doctors five grammes of fluid which, it is alleged, was Koch lymph, for the sum of $80.

The Continental Hotel has charged Frau Berger, of Karlsruhe, whose husband died there after being inoculated by Dr. Levy, the sum of $175 for the disinfection alone of the room be occupied. The Official Gazette prints a dispatch from the Russian minister at Berlin warning consumptives against coming here on account of the exorbitant fees which the physicians are charging for treatment and the remarkably high prices the hotel proprietors demand for accommodations. The government will be forced to withdraw the lymph from private sources entirely if this swindling continues.

On Sunday the Emperor received a bar-ber named Rieger, who lives in Glogau, in order to obtain from him the report of Rieger's secret diphtheria cure, which, it is stated, worked wonders among the patients of Glogau and the neighborhood. The discovery was made by Rieger's father, who is a shepherd. The Kaiser has promised Rieger an opportunity of making experiments with this remedy at the Charity Hospital under the appropriation of Professors pital under the supervision of Professors Koch and Bergmann.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

Royal Clemency Asked in Behalf of Dr Bright's Would-Be Slayer. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LONDON, Dec. 7 .- A petition is in circulation and receiving many signatures, that royal clemency be shown to the woman, Theresa Riordan, convicted of shooting Dr. Bright, master of University College, Oxford, and sentenced to six years' penal servitude. The trial let in an interesting side-light on life in the university. John Thomas Augustus Haines, junior dean, fellow, tutor and dean of degrees of University College, supported this woman for years, and then, when he formed a marriage engagement with Dr. Bright's daughter, coolly proceeded to cast her aside.
This excited Miss Riordan to a pitch of madness and she turned her anger against Dr. Bright, who had done nothing to injure her, but whom she, in her frenzy, accused of having influenced Haines's choice. The Doctor will survive her attempt upon his life, but has not yet fully recovered. The sentence of Miss Riordan is looked upon by many as too severe under the circumstances. Haines has resigned his fellow-

Of her guilt there seems to be no doubt, and therefore, also, no doubt that the sentence will be, if it has not already been, carried out. It is not likely that the public will ever learn what becomes of her public will ever learn what becomes of her except, perhaps, in some brief official report of the execution. As she had bombs in her possession when arrested, and also a proclamation announcing the death of the Czar. Alexander III may congratulate himself in having her out of the way. Holland's Costly War. LONDON, Dec. 7 .- Queen Emma is taking hold, with energy, of her duties as Regent of Holland. She has called for a full history of the Acheen war, its causes and progress, and it is understood that she contemplates bringing to a close that fruitless struggle which has lasted since 1873 and cost Holland over sixty thousand lives and nearly £30,000,000. The question of the exaction of port duties by the Congo Free State is also likely to be brought to a prompt conclusion. The will of the late King leaves the greater part of his private fortune to Queen Emma.

SOME OF THE HACKMEN OBJECT.

The Stand Ordinance from Council the Aldermen Will Consider To-Night Not Satisfatory.

The Board of Aldermen to-night will consider the ordinance creating hack-stands in the city, and it is said some opposition vill be made to the locations as they were decided upon by Council last Monday night. The ordinance, which was passed under a suspension of the rules, provided for the following stands: First, on Kentucky avenue, from Washington street to the river; second, two hacks on Maryland street, west of Illinois; third, two hacks on Maryland street, east of Illi-nois; fourth, three backs on Pennsylvania street at the front entrance of the Denison Hotel. This plan is objected to by individual hackmen who own their vehicles, on the ground that the places selected are not such as will encourage their business. "The hack companies," said one of the objectors last night, "will occupy the stands and we will be compelled to take chances in getting on the Maryland street stands, or go out on Keastand on Illinois street, from Washington to Ohio. The hack business has been centered there for years, and it will be a loss tered there for years, and it will be a loss to us to make a change."

It is not probable that enough opposition to the ordinance, however, will be made in the board to-night to defeat it. Among other matters of importance that will come up will be the allowance of Dr. Orlopp's salary, as veterinary surgeon, since last April. The Democratic members, it is said, have been instructed to vote with the Republicans in favor of the appropriation. The matter of favor of the appropriation. The matter of turning Michael Flaherty's contracts for street improvements over to his bondsmen will also be acted upon.

CITY OF CHICAGO CAPITALISTS.

Their Purposes May Interfere with the Proposed Charter Plans for Indianapolis.

A new question has arisen which bids fair to perplex the members of the city charter committee. It was the intention to frame this charter in such way as to be applicable to Indianapolis only, the distinction being on a basis of population. The newspaper talk in regard to the new city that is to be founded in Lake county by Armour and other Chicago capitalists has put the matter in a new light and the committee is in doubt as to what steps to take.

"If this new city that is talked of," said a member of the committee last night, "reaches a population of 100,000 we could not well make any distinction, unless it be on the ground that Indianapolis is the capital of the State. I have no idea that the Chicago project as to extent will amount to much more than plans on paper, but we must be prepared for any con-tingencies that might arise. We could do nothing except make this proposed charter applicable to the new place or else assist it to secure one similar to it."

Among the numerous changes proposed is one that will affect the police and fire departments. It is in the direction of compelling the chiefs of both departments to give discharged employes a public trial before their dismissal can be final.

LAW-MAKERS OF THE STATE

Their Relation as to Nativity, Calling and Other Conditions to Society.

More Farmers in the House Than Any Other Class, While Lawyers Take Precedence in the Senate-List of Members.

The forthcoming report of Secretary of State Griffin will contain a new feature and one of much interest, namely, the occupation, nativity, year of coming to Indiana, and previous service, if any, in the Legislature, of the members of the next General Assembly. No previous report has ever given these statistics, but it is probable that Mr. Griffin's example will be followed by Indiana's future secretaries, without exception. The work was one of considerable magnitude, as can readily be seen. Of the one hundred members of the House forty-five are farmers, so that the agricultural element is decidedly in the ascendency, lacking only six of having a majority. The lawyers come next, with twenty-one Representatives; the doctors have six; merchants, four; manufacturers, three; teachers, two, and each of the following occu-pations one: Railroad station agent, carpenter, jeweler and druggist, cigar manufacturer, tinner, minister, painter, traveling salesman, real estate and insurance, telegraph operator, bank cashier, printer, hotel proprietor, editor, cigarmaker, lumber and stock-dealer. Of the forty-five farmers one is also a merchant, two are teachers, one is a lawyer, while another puts himself down as a "minister and farmer," and still another is a "retired farmer.

The lawyers are more strongly represent-ed in the Senate than any other profession or occupation, there being twenty-one of them in that body. The farmers come next, with fifteen. There are four bankers, three physicians, one retired merchant, and one representative each of the following occupations: Teacher, druggist, con-tractor, journalist, real-estate agent, plumber. Of the farmers one is also a merchant and miller, another a merchant, and a third combines banking with agricultural pursuits. Sixty members of the House were born in Indiana, while other States are responsible for the being of the remaining Representatives, as follows: Ohio, 15; Kentucky, 3; Tennessee, 3; New York, 3; Penn-sylvania, 2; North Carolina, 2; Michigan, Maryland and Illinois, one each. Three members were born in the old country, one in Germany, another in Ireland, and a third in Prussia. The Hosier State was the birthplace of thirty of the Senators, the others being apportioned as follows under the nativity heading: Ohio, 4; Kentucky, 2; Pennsyvania, 2; Tennessee, 2, and Pennsyvania, 2; Tennessee, 2, and New York, Illinois, Michigan and Massachusetts one each. Two were born in Germany, two in Ireland and one

Thirty-two of the members of the House have had legislative experience, having served in former bodies of Indiana lawmakers, while sixty-five will take their first lesson in the art on the 8th day of next month. Of the twenty-five new Senators ten have served previous terms in the Indiana Legislature, while fifteen are novices. The married men are overwhelmingly in the majority in both branches, the House num-bering seventy-nine benedicts and sixteen bachelors, while forty-four Senators wear the matrimonial yoke and six have yet to acquire it.

Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsapavilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass. N. B. Be sure to get only

Of Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites
Of Lime and Soda.

There are emulsions and emulsions, and there is still much skimmed milk and there is still much skimmed milk which masquerades as cream. Try as they will many manufacturers cannot so disguise their coa liver oil as to make it palatable to sensitive stomacks. Scott's Emulsion of PURE NORWEGIAN COD LIVER OIL, combined with Hypophosphites is almost as palatable as milk. For this reason as well as for the fact of the stimulating qualities of the Hypophosphites, Physicians frequently prescribe it in cases of
